

The Homer Fitts Company

Offer Exceptional Values in the Ready-to-Wear
Department for Saturday

LOT 1—16 Women's and Misses' Fancy Trimmed Suits, all new, up-to-date models; materials such as Serges, Cheviots, and Fancy Crepes, offering values in this lot up to $18.00. For quick sale, each..... $12.50

LOT 2—11 Women's Fine Tailored Suits, shown up in the latest materials, such as Wool Poplins, Cheviots, Broadcloth and Lymanville cheviots. Values in this lot up to $22.50. For quick sale, each..... $16.50

Extra Special

One lot of Ladies' and Misses' Coats, some of them last season's, but just as warm as though you paid full price. Regular prices up to $15.00. To close, each..... $6.98

ALSO VERY SPECIAL VALUES IN LADIES' FUR COATS

Parlor Golf

A Summer Sport in Winter

A game that can be played by young as well as old people. Golf players pronounce this game to be as close to the regular golf game as it would be possible to be played indoors. Parlor Golf is not a toy; it is a game that requires skill, the same as putting a ball on the regular golf links. Come in and see the game and learn about the different ways to play.

An Exceptionally Good Gift for Christmas, Price $2.00

Dress Making Made Easy by One of Hall Brochert "Perfection" Dress Forms

CAME IN MANY DISGUISES.

Participants at Odd Ladies' Masquerade
Furnished Much Merriment.

Last evening a dance in the form of a masquerade was given by the Odd Ladies in the Scampin' block on North Main street. During the early evening masked persons began to assemble and caused much merriment in their disguises. There were costumes of all sorts and Opie Dilldock had many a fight with the clown. Bruce's orchestra furnished music for the dance. When all had arrived the hall was well crowded and the tickets sold numbered over 75 couples. The judges, Alex Cowie, Charles Masson, and Arthur Manard, were chosen by the committee to pick out the best in costume and the biggest freak. In the same way they were to choose the women.

The music started and all in costume formed in couples and marched around the hall and stopped in a square and prizes were announced. First for men went to William Jones as Opie Dilldock, the prize being a pipe. The second for men went to George Ross as a retired sergeant in farmer costume. The prize was a cornucopia pipe. Mrs. L. F. Bailey dressed as Pierrot won the first for the ladies, the prize being a box of chocolates. Mr. Oland Harvey dressed as a charming lady received second for women, the prize being a package of gum. After awarding the prizes dancing was in order until midnight. The committee in charge are planning to have another in the near future as this was such a success. They are as follows: Mrs. Alfred Milne, Mrs. J. C. Morrison, Mrs. Nellie Bianchi, Mrs. Margaret Stevens, Mrs. Frederick Dale, Mrs. Harry Gamble, Mrs. James Simms.

The Returned Tourist.

"What were the most beautiful things you saw in Europe?"
"A ham sandwich and a steamboat ticket."—Washington Star.

Sale on all garments, second floor, at Vaughan's.

BARRE OPERA HOUSE

FOX & EATON, Lessees
JOHN E. HOBAN, Resident Mgr.

All Week Starting
Monday, Nov. 23rd
Matinee Saturday at 2:30

Urban Stock Co.

FEATURING

Marion Johnquest

SATURDAY NIGHT

"THE OPEN WINDOW"

Vaudeville Between Acts
Carload of Scenery and Effects

NIGHT PRICES.....10c, 20c, 30c, 50c

Munsing Union Suits Today

A complete assortment of Men's and Boys' Suits in this famous make.

Men's Suits, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50.

Boys' Suits, 50c and $1.00.

The Frank McWhorter Company

D. C. Rizzi, Commesso Italiano

BARRE DAILY TIMES

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1914.

The Weather

Fair and warmer to-night and Sunday; variable winds becoming fresh and southwest.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New coats at Fitts'.
Abbott is ready for your Christmas business.

Ladies' and children's outing robes at Vaughan's.
Big values in Fitts' suit department for Saturday.

Eight days' sale, then Christmas shopping at Vaughan's.
Special Sunday dinner (chicken-pie) at the Buzzell dining rooms, 35c.

The Tourist club will meet with Mrs. Lazell Monday afternoon at 2:30.
The best value in 25c framed pictures at Miss M. L. Walker's. See Pearl street window display.

Annie Peaneau of Northfield arrived yesterday for a few days' visit with friends in the city.

The nature study class of the Woman's club will meet with Mrs. N. D. Phelps Monday evening.

A nice line of serge dresses from $4.98 to $7.50; two special styles for stout figures. Paris Shirtwaist House.

John Reed of Burlington returned home yesterday after a short business visit with friends in the city.

Regular Saturday night dance in Howland hall, Nov. 28, under the auspices of Riley's orchestra. Ladies free.

Christmas stationery and correspondence cards are the very latest. Let us show them to you at Kenyon's.

Cesare Piola of Beckley street returned last evening from a stay of several days with friends in Boston.

E. Compagna returned this morning to his home in Waterbury, after a few days' visit with relatives in Barre.

Don't climb ladders. Avoid danger and save time by using Messer's storm window fasteners. Ask your hardware dealer.

Miss Jessie Robertson, who has been visiting relatives in the city for some time, returned last night to her home in Boston.

Assessment No. 24 of the ladies' auxiliary to Clan Gordon is now due and must be paid on or before Tuesday, December 1.

George Chatman of Westerville was in the city yesterday with his family on their way to New York, where they will sail for England to spend the winter.

Mrs. John Merrill, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Rule of Elm street, for the past four weeks, left yesterday for her home in Waltham, Mass.

The regular meeting of the ladies' auxiliary to Clan Gordon, No. 12, will be held Tuesday, Dec. 1, at 7:30 p.m. Nomination of officers. A large attendance is requested.

Mrs. I. S. Bostwick of St. Albans, who has been a guest of friends in Barre and Montpelier for a few days, has gone to Springfield for a short visit before returning to her home.

George Troup of Albany, N. Y., arrived in the city last evening for a few weeks' stay with relatives. Mrs. Troup is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Henry Nute of the Morse block, and also with his sons in Barre.

All are welcome to the services to be held Sunday evening at 7:30 in the Worthen block. Evangelist E. L. Abbott will speak on "The Relation of the Law to the Gospel." This will be an interesting lecture. All should plan to hear it.

Miss Myrtle Stone, a teacher in the city schools, is spending a few days at her home in Bakersfield. She was accompanied as far as East Fairfield by Miss Elizabeth McEhany, who will be absent until Monday.

Charles McDonald of New York City has been passing a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald of Liberty street. This evening Mr. McDonald will leave for Lowell, Mass., to visit his sister, Mrs. Leroy Darling.

Christmas club members should look over their cards and see if all payments have been made. December 7 is the last day payments can be made on this year's accounts. Open Saturday and Monday evenings 7 to 8 o'clock. Barre Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Frank Gave of Orange has secured a large amount of carpenter work in Florida and on Monday he will leave with a number of men to be employed there for the winter. Among those who accompany him are his son, Omond, John Plaisted and son, and George Clark of Montpelier.

The work of razing a row of unused buildings along the Central Vermont railroad south of Granite street goes on unhindered, and the new uniformed structure will have been removed entirely by next week. Contractor Daniel Romanis, who purchased the houses for a mere pittance, according to the story, is transporting the timber to a vacant lot which he owns on Prospect street.

On an old warrant issued from Justice A. C. Dickey's court in East Barre last spring, Thomas Murphy was arrested in Barre yesterday by Deputy Sheriff W. E. Bixby and taken to the county jail in Montpelier. Murphy was arrested last May on a breach of peace charge and had in the sum of $500 been furnished for his future appearance. Subsequently, however, bail was surrendered and Murphy did not appear in justice court. Until he can furnish bail for a second appearance, the man will be detained at the county jail.

The Tilden Shoe Co. is exhibiting a peculiar pair of walking shoes in its display window and while the footwear is fashioned after a type familiar to European travelers, not a few passers-by have paused to give the exhibit a careful scrutiny. The shoes are of wood with leather overlays, considerably longer than even abnormally large-sized shoes worn in America. Artists who are interested in Dutch portraiture could never hope to rise to their pedestal should they fail to admire the feet of their subjects with just such footwear as is shown in the window. But strangely enough, the wooden shoes come from Denmark and never traveled a yard on Dutch soil. They are the property of George Morris of Circle street and have been in his possession for several years.

A special meeting of the Board of Health, No. 12, 9, 8, C., will be held in the City Hall Monday, Nov. 23, at 7 p.m. Business, hear testimony on revision of the city's health regulations.

Miss Flora Borne, one of Waitsfield's most popular telephone girls, has completed her work in the central office and is soon to be married.

Miss Lena Belle Henry has been called home to North Fenton by the sickness of her mother.

Miss Helen Bixby was home from Goddard for Thanksgiving.

Miss L. M. Johnson of Burlington is the guest of Miss Alice Bushnell.

Miss L. Jean Bixby is spending the week with Mrs. W. A. Bixby.

Miss Martha L. Smith of Hudson, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. N. Bushnell.

Chester Bixby was home from Barre for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Scott Bixby of Barre is a guest at R. D. Bixby's.

A special meeting of the Board of Health, No. 12, 9, 8, C., will be held in the City Hall Monday, Nov. 23, at 7 p.m. Business, hear testimony on revision of the city's health regulations.

Miss L. M. Johnson of Burlington is the guest of Miss Alice Bushnell.

Miss L. Jean Bixby is spending the week with Mrs. W. A. Bixby.

Miss Martha L. Smith of Hudson, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. N. Bushnell.

Chester Bixby was home from Barre for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Scott Bixby of Barre is a guest at R. D. Bixby's.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See new things at Abbott's.
See Abbott's line of bath robes.
Extra values in Fitts' suit sale to-day.

Special: Hot chicken-pie pies. Where? at the Hub.

Big sale begins Saturday on all winter goods, at Vaughan's.

Fifty-cent and $1.50 editions of popular novels, 25c at Red Cross Pharmacy.

Saturday special—House dresses and shirtwaists, 98c. Paris Shirtwaist House.

Margaret Daley of Burlington arrived yesterday for a few days' visit with friends in the city.

Wanted—500 boys and girls to sell Red Cross seals to help stamp out the dread disease, tuberculosis.

Miss Jean Darling of Laurel street, who is teaching school in Woodbury, has returned home for a two weeks' vacation.

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a sale of aprons, dolls and fancy articles Tuesday night in the vestry of the church after the supper.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Holt of Hill street returned last night from Boston, where they spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Holt's father, Moses Edmunds.

Gus Herning, who was formerly employed in Barre as a baker, arrived in the city to-day from Berlin, N. H., having been called here by the death of George McIntosh.

Operations at Jones Bros' granite plant, resumed on a small scale yesterday after a shutdown of several days, were suspended again this morning for the week-end. It is expected that brick emplacements in process of construction under the boilers at the plant will have been completed by to-night and that the full quota of men may be employed on Monday.

The department of home economics of the Woman's club has arranged for an institute Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, under the management of Prof. Bertha M. Terrill of the University of Vermont. She will be assisted by Miss Marshall and Mrs. Dimock. The meetings will be at Howland hall and all Barre women are invited. There is no admission fee. Lectures and demonstrations on subjects pertaining to cooking, home management and decoration, gardening and dressmaking will constitute the program. On Tuesday, from 11 to 12, Miss Terrill wishes to meet all girls from the eighth grades and first year of the high school. She will give them a demonstration and tell them about a prize which is to be awarded. From 2 to 4 there will be a bread demonstration by Mrs. Dimock. From 4 to 5 Miss Terrill will tell the boys from the grades mentioned above about a new kind of gardening. The evening will be devoted to lectures by Miss Terrill and Mrs. Dimock. Wednesday's program will be printed later.

Resulted in a Draw.

A chess and checker match, played last night between Clan Gordon and the Barre Chess & Checker club, resulted in the following scores:

Chess.
Won. Clan. Drawn. Club. Won.
2 Robert Gordon. 0 R. H. Goss..... 0
1 B. C. Howard. 0 C. Gauthier..... 2

Checkers.
Won. Clan. Drawn. Club. Won.
3 A. Anderson..... 0 William Perry..... 1
1 D. Stephen..... 2 W. H. Messer..... 1
0 M. Patterson..... 4 W. F. Bradford..... 0
1 W. Galletly..... 1 Charles Spear..... 2
4 A. Ronnie..... 0 C. F. Ayers..... 1
2 R. Stewart..... 2 Ed. Blanchard..... 0
1 R. Wilson..... 0 W. H. Buchan..... 3

WASHINGTON.

Baptist church, Washington—Charles O. Dunham, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30; subject, "The Parable of Hope." Bible school at 11:30. Christian Endeavor at 6 p.m.; topic, "Missionary Heroes and Heroines." (1 Cor. 4:1-18). Evening preaching at 7 o'clock. Midweek prayer and praise service Thursday evening at 7:30.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Congregational church—Morning worship at 10:45; sermon subject, "Learning from the Samaritans." Sunday school at noon. Union service at 7:30 p.m. Christian Endeavor Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Menu.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve their monthly supper in the dining hall of the church Tuesday night, Dec. 1, from 6 to 7:30.

Shepard pie Cranberry sauce
Hot rolls Assorted cakes
Tea Coffee

Price, 25c.
There will be a business meeting of the ladies' aid society at 5 o'clock.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED
FOR RENT—Tentement adjacent to Currier Park; modern, central, and pleasant; for immediate occupancy. A. A. Borne, 1 East street, 2197.

TO RENT—A small tentment at 11 Church street, will be ready Dec. 1. Inquire of Dr. G. B. Stuckey, 2197.

TO RENT—Four-room tentment with extra room if desired; only 5 minutes walk from postoffice. Call at 67 Prospect street. E. T. Borne, 2197.

FOR SALE—Two express travlers sleighs (1 2-seater, also 1 3-seater) cheap. Call on A. J. Floyd, P. O. Woodstock district, Cable Hill, Barre, Vt.; R. F. D. No. 1, 2196A.

TO RENT—A small tentment at 11 Church street, will be ready Dec. 1. Inquire of Dr. G. B. Stuckey, 2197.

TO RENT—Four-room tentment with extra room if desired; only 5 minutes walk from postoffice. Call at 67 Prospect street. E. T. Borne, 2197.

FOR SALE—Two express travlers sleighs (1 2-seater, also 1 3-seater) cheap. Call on A. J. Floyd, P. O. Woodstock district, Cable Hill, Barre, Vt.; R. F. D. No. 1, 2196A.

TO RENT—A small tentment at 11 Church street, will be ready Dec. 1. Inquire of Dr. G. B. Stuckey, 2197.

TO RENT—Four-room tentment with extra room if desired; only 5 minutes walk from postoffice. Call at 67 Prospect street. E. T. Borne, 2197.

FOR SALE—Two express travlers sleighs (1 2-seater, also 1 3-seater) cheap. Call on A. J. Floyd, P. O. Woodstock district, Cable Hill, Barre, Vt.; R. F. D. No. 1, 2196A.

TO RENT—A small tentment at 11 Church street, will be ready Dec. 1. Inquire of Dr. G. B. Stuckey, 2197.

TO RENT—Four-room tentment with extra room if desired; only 5 minutes walk from postoffice. Call at 67 Prospect street. E. T. Borne, 2197.

FOR SALE—Two express travlers sleighs (1 2-seater, also 1 3-seater) cheap. Call on A. J. Floyd, P. O. Woodstock district, Cable Hill, Barre, Vt.; R. F. D. No. 1, 2196A.

TO RENT—A small tentment at 11 Church street, will be ready Dec. 1. Inquire of Dr. G. B. Stuckey, 2197.

TO RENT—Four-room tentment with extra room if desired; only 5 minutes walk from postoffice. Call at 67 Prospect street. E. T. Borne, 2197.

FOR SALE—Two express travlers sleighs (1 2-seater, also 1 3-seater) cheap. Call on A. J. Floyd, P. O. Woodstock district, Cable Hill, Barre, Vt.; R. F. D. No. 1, 2196A.

TO RENT—A small tentment at 11 Church street, will be ready Dec. 1. Inquire of Dr. G. B. Stuckey, 2197.

TO RENT—Four-room tentment with extra room if desired; only 5 minutes walk from postoffice. Call at 67 Prospect street. E. T. Borne, 2197.

FOR SALE—Two express travlers sleighs (1 2-seater, also 1 3-seater) cheap. Call on A. J. Floyd, P. O. Woodstock district, Cable Hill, Barre, Vt.; R. F. D. No. 1, 2196A.

TO RENT—A small tentment at 11 Church street, will be ready Dec. 1. Inquire of Dr. G. B. Stuckey, 2197.

TO RENT—Four-room tentment with extra room if desired; only 5 minutes walk from postoffice. Call at 67 Prospect street. E. T. Borne, 2197.

FOR SALE—Two express travlers sleighs (1 2-seater, also 1 3-seater) cheap. Call on A. J. Floyd, P. O. Woodstock district, Cable Hill, Barre, Vt.; R. F. D. No. 1, 2196A.

Blankets and Comfortables

For You!

Warm bedding is essential at this time of the year. Don't make yourself uncomfortable for lack of it. We have a complete line of Blankets and Comforts at a wide range of prices.

Blankets.....79c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.50 to $8.00
Comforts, $1.00, $1.38, $1.50, $2.25, to the Down Comfort at.....$7.50

Blankets in Whites, Tans, Grays and Plaids, with pretty striped borders

LET US SHOW YOU—YOU WILL FIND IT PAYS TO TRADE HERE

HENRY W. KNIGHT, Barre, Vt.

Successor to Veale & Knight

$3.50 TO $5.00 Queen Quality $3.50 TO $5.00

We Give Service

Our aim is not merely to sell shoes, but to sell shoes right. We do not feel that our responsibility ends after a purchase is made. We want you to be satisfied, and to be satisfied for all time.

Every "Queen Quality" Shoe purchased here carries with it a double guarantee—the maker's, and our own. You are assured a perfect fit and a reasonable price always. Our store service assures satisfaction and correct style. Why not test us to-day?

The Peoples Shoe Store,

C. S. Andrews, Prop. 187 North Main Street

The Horrors of Christmas—As They Appear to a Cynic.

In the December American Magazine James Montgomery Flagg, the famous wit and artist, does a Christmas piece in words and pictures in which he describes in part as follows the cynical view of Christmas that a perfectly decent man had in a dream:

"To continue the horrors, there is the family reunion! What can be more doleful than a whole day given up to squinting in the perverted circle of your immediate blood relations? In ones or twos it is not necessarily unbearable, but to be pinioned for twelve hours in the lap of osculatory consanguinity is flattening to the soul! Your family, while they treat you with brutal affection and disrespectful familiarity of old friends, know you slightly! They are always presumptuous! Never does human intercourse descend so near to the life of a fly-trap as on Christmas. Everyone walks and crawls about all over every other one's head! You have to sit and beam and 'Shmerryehis' and 'No, I said it first!' And a bunch of obscure cousins and aunts crowd in on the already perspiring mass and have to be kissed through veils—veils don't help much—perhaps a little!"

"Then you fatuously take turns at opening bundles, as you did when you were children. You have to pretend you have never seen your present before, when in reality it was shown to you weeks ago. But you unwrap it with a beautiful assumption of innocence, and a widening grin that almost makes your ears meet on top of your head when your enchanted gaze finally rests on the novel you read last summer! Just what I wanted!"

"Then comes that fiendishly ponderous Christmas dinner, with resurrections at intervals of tribal jests dragged out of the family mausoleum for their annual gibbering, and the coquettishness of brothers' wives, and the parading of the rhapsody of old Aunt Clara, and the dinky table favors, mostly receptacles for broken glass, Christmas candy, cunningly disguised as snowballs, Santa Clauses and drums and young ducks, over which you are expected to giggle and squeal, and eventually collect and take home with you and line up on the mantelpiece, where they stay for days until you suddenly sweep them into the scrap basket! There are eighteen kinds of dessert you must sample and wash down with cider, and get an awful stomachache."

"Then you fatuously take turns at opening bundles, as you did when you were children. You have to pretend you have never seen your present before, when in reality it was shown to you weeks ago. But you unwrap it with a beautiful assumption of innocence, and a widening grin that almost makes your ears meet on top of your head when your enchanted gaze finally rests on the novel you read last summer! Just what I wanted!"

"Then comes that fiendishly ponderous Christmas dinner, with resurrections at intervals of tribal jests dragged out of the family mausoleum for their annual gibbering, and the coquettishness of brothers' wives, and the parading of the rhapsody of old Aunt Clara, and the dinky table favors, mostly receptacles for broken glass, Christmas candy, cunningly disguised as snowballs, Santa Clauses and drums and young ducks, over which you are expected to giggle and squeal, and eventually collect and take home with you and line up on the mantelpiece, where they stay for days until you suddenly sweep them into the scrap basket! There are eighteen kinds of dessert you must sample and wash down with cider, and get an awful stomachache."

"Then you fatuously take turns at opening bundles, as you did when you were children. You have to pretend you have never seen your present before, when in reality it was shown to you weeks ago. But you unwrap it with a beautiful assumption of innocence, and a widening grin that almost makes your ears meet on top of your head when your enchanted gaze finally rests on the novel you read last summer! Just what I wanted!"

"Then comes that fiendishly ponderous Christmas dinner, with resurrections at intervals of tribal jests dragged out of the family mausoleum for their annual gibbering, and the coquettishness of brothers' wives, and the parading of the rhapsody of old Aunt Clara, and the dinky table favors, mostly receptacles for broken glass, Christmas candy, cunningly disguised as snowballs, Santa Clauses and drums and young ducks, over which you are expected to giggle and squeal, and eventually collect and take home with you and line up on the mantelpiece, where they stay for days until you suddenly sweep them into the scrap basket! There are eighteen kinds of dessert you must sample and wash down with cider, and get an awful stomachache."

"Then you fatuously take turns at opening bundles, as you did when you were children. You have to pretend you have never seen your present before, when in reality it was shown to you weeks ago. But you unwrap it with a beautiful assumption of innocence, and a widening grin that almost makes your ears meet on top of your head when your enchanted gaze finally rests on the novel you read last summer! Just what I wanted!"

"Then comes that fiendishly ponderous Christmas dinner, with resurrections at intervals of tribal jests dragged out of the family mausoleum for their annual gibbering, and the coquettishness of brothers' wives, and the parading of the rhapsody of old Aunt Clara, and the dinky table favors, mostly receptacles for broken glass, Christmas candy, cunningly disguised as snowballs, Santa Clauses and drums and young ducks, over which you are expected to giggle and squeal, and eventually collect and take home with you and line up on the mantelpiece, where they stay for days until you suddenly sweep them into the scrap basket! There are eighteen kinds of dessert you must sample and wash down with cider, and get an awful stomachache."

"Then you fatuously take turns at opening bundles, as you did when you were children. You have to pretend you have never seen your present before, when in reality it was shown to you weeks ago. But you unwrap it with a beautiful assumption of innocence, and a widening grin that almost makes your ears meet on top of your head when your enchanted gaze finally rests on the novel you read last summer! Just what I wanted!"

"Then comes that fiendishly ponderous Christmas dinner, with resurrections at intervals of tribal jests dragged out of the family mausoleum for their annual gibbering, and the coquettishness of brothers' wives, and the parading of the rhapsody of old Aunt Clara, and the dinky table favors, mostly receptacles for broken glass, Christmas candy, cunningly disguised as snowballs, Santa Clauses and drums and young ducks, over which